

ADVENTURE RACING WORLD SERIES A TOP NOTCH EDITION

Press Release #1 Avril 22

On April, 60 teams of 4 racers each are enrolled (10 countries).
400 km and 16000 elevation gain in total autonomy will be covered between June 22nd and July 1st from Bourg Saint Maurice to Aix-les-Bains.

The third most visited natural site in the world, the highest peak of the Alps and the most famous mountain in Europe; The pinnacle for any mountaineer! Raid in France 2022, French edition of adventure races world cups, is going for it.

Through the adventure, between Bourg Saint Maurice and Aix les Bains Riviera des Alpes, the Mont Blanc and the racers will mutually keep an eye on each other. The outstanding panorama of this mountain will guide the racers through the 4 to 6 days of race in total autonomy. The best teams will try to win their qualification spot for the world championships in Paraguay.

From June 22nd to July 1st, the racers will be challenged with some very mountainous and sections going through Northern Alps, Savoie, Haute-Savoie and Tarentaise Valley: long trekking or MTB stretches above 2 000 meters altitude, glaciers walks, going above 3 000m altitude, ropes activities and several white-water legs between mountain rivers and lakes.

A non-stop race of 4 days for the winning team and up to 6 days for the last ones.

« Orienteering, MTB, packraft, canoeing... everything to be happy, reports Pascal Bahuaud, race director, very enthusiastically. The track is as demanding as it can get when you are in the mountains, but it stays faithful to Raid in France spirit. We will have some solutions for the less experienced teams to allow them to keep racing as long as possible ». To participate, you must only be 4, be passionate about sports and nature and admiring the wilderness of nature... and kind of hardy!

From June 22nd, Raid in France will be welcoming the teams in Bourg Saint Maurice, start line of the race. The teams will progress through the activities racking up 400 km and 16 000 elevation gain (that is to say, climbing Everest twice). The finish line will be settled on the beach of Aix les Bains from June 29th.
